

What's Happening this Week at Westview??

Parents and Guardians-

First period classes start at 7:25 a.m. Please make sure your student arrives to campus prior to this time so they can get to class before the bell. Student success is a priority and starts with students being in class on time. Please remember dress code is being enforced. We are promoting accountability and character in our young adults. We thank you for giving us this opportunity to work with your children and thank you for your cooperation!!!

Parent Night is August 18th from 6-8pm. Come to Westview, meet your teachers and see our beautiful campus while you get any of your questions answered.
